FOX SPORTS NET DEL MAR NEWS & NOTES

ANOTHER GENERAL CHALLENGE DAY: A SIZZLING 7 FURLONGS

It's getting to be a habit: bullet works by defending Pacific Classic champion General Challenge.

Today was a workday like any other workday for "The General." He sizzled seven furlongs in 1:23.30, by far the fastest of six workouts at the distance.

To this point, it appears that the big chestnut gelding, a son of General Meeting, could get six and as many as eight challengers in the Grade I, $1-million Pacific Classic, scheduled for Saturday, August 26. Heading the list are his Hollywood Gold Cup conqueror Early Pioneer and multiple graded-stakes winner Ecton Park. Early Pioneer is ensconced in the Del Mar barn of trainer Vladimir Cerin, while Ecton Park awaits shipping papers from trainer Elliott Walden's Saratoga headquarters.

Primed to go, also, are San Diego Handicap winner Skimming; last year's Pacific Classic runner-up, River Keen; Euchre, winner of Hollywood Park's Grade II Bel Air Handicap; Blazing Sword, who won the Washington Park Handicap at Arlington International Race Course; and the 3-year-old Tiznow, who won the Affirmed Handicap and finished second in the Grade I Swaps Stakes, both at Hollywood Park

On the "possible" list are San Diego runner-up Prime Timber and Cat Thief, who finished a good second in the Whitney Handicap.

FLORIDA SHIPPER CAPITAL REQUEST TO TRY DEL MAR OAKS

Though the original plan was to ship home to Florida, Capital Request, who tired and finished fifth in Saturday's Grade II San Clemente Handicap, is staying at Del Mar to be primed for the Grade I, $250,000 Del Mar Oaks on Sunday, August 27.

Owner-trainer Herman Wilensky left the 3-year-old filly in the care of trainer Howard Zucker, who said the decision to leave her here was made after seeing how well she came out of the race. "She's a dicey doer," Zucker said, adding that she was acclimating well after her trip from her Florida base for the San Clemente.

That race was her first since March and she tracked the leader, Automated, in second place for most of the race before tiring in the stretch. Zucker sent her to the track for the first time since the race on Tuesday and reported that "she was full of herself" during the jog once around the oval.

SHORELINES – There were a number of impressive workouts on Del Mar's main track Wednesday morning. Among them: 3 furlongs – Royal Irish, a nominee to Monday's $100,000-added Real Good Deal Stakes, 34.10; 4 furlongs – Levelled, 47.30; Squirtle Squirt, prospect for the Grade III Best Pal Stakes, 48.10; 5 furlongs – Gibson County, going in the Real Good Deal, 58.20; Old Topper, a prospect for the Pat O'Brien Handicap, 58.40; Elegant Fellow, working toward the Real Good Deal, 59; Bordelaise, heading for the Hirsch Handicap, 1:00; Son of a Pistol, for the Pat O'Brien, 1:01.40; 6 furlongs – Echo Eddie, for the Real Good Deal, 1:11.40.

Del Mar ANALYSIS

BEST BET: POWER OF ELPRADO (1st race)

First Race

1. POWER OF ELPRADO 2. TWICE DECEIVED 3. OLD MIZZOU

POWER OF ELPRADO is up a notch following a sharp third in a fast, highly-rated race. The gray put away two longshot pace rivals, then got run down by perfect-trippers who rallied from fourth and fifth, respectively. 'ELPRADO now moves to an outside box, shortens up a half-furlong, and meets a field that includes only one other true front-runner. On the lead, or pressing from the outside, 'ELPRADO may be the best gamble on the card. TWICE DECEIVED is quick enough take charge early. He flashed speed vs. straight maidens in March at Santa Anita, then went to the sidelines. He returns in a maiden-claimer for a trainer that does well with comebackers. First time back, he is super-live and possibly the one to catch. OLD MIZZOU was scratched from a $32,000 maiden-claimer Thursday to go for $50,000 instead. Seems he has some ability, as his works indicate.GAELIC HOPE and STROLLIN are the late threats.

Second Race

1. PRETTY EYES 2. LOUISE'S TIME 3. STELLIO

PRETTY EYES goes long after an decent sprint comeback, and the daughter of top turf sire Lord At War should love the switch to grass. She turned in a super workout here Aug. 5, has moved into the barn of winning trainer John Shirreffs, and looks tough to catch on the stretch-out. LOUISE'S TIME suffered a brutal trip June 4 when she took up sharply at the eighth pole in a race she had a chance to win with a clean trip. That was her first try on grass; she obviously has found a home. STELLIO is another who was compromised in the same race. She subsequently bombed on the main track, but her turf efforts put her in the ballpark. NEPENTHE and INDY'S PALOMA both are bred for grass, and both are running long on grass following even-paced sprint efforts. Either or both have a longshot look.

Del Mar ANALYSIS

Third Race

1. FLYING LESSON 2. GILLY'S GHAZI 3. LADY WARSHIP

FLYING LESSON benefitted from a perfect trip last out when cruised last time out, and the sharp filly may get a similar trip here. She has speed to be forwardly placed, she can rally around horses late, and she is simply the fastest filly in the race off any of her recent starts. Up the ladder with the chalk. GILLY'S GHAZI won nicely June 22 and was claimed by a hot barn. Trainer Bill Spawr has been deadly this year with horses making their first and second start off the claim, and this gal's recent workouts suggest she has never been better. When she broke her maiden on this track last year, she paid $124.80. LADY WARSHIP is improving with racing. She comes off a second-place finish in a weak race, but has plenty room to improve.

Fourth Race

1. SATIN CAT 2. CASA'S KIDS 3. REGGAE QUEEN

SATIN CAT raced evenly throughout in a debut that may have been little more than an educational run. The $1 million daughter of Storm Cat hails from a barn that typically brings its young horses along slowly, and she should take a huge leap forward second time out. CASA'S KIDS finished in front of the top choice last out. The improving Theatrical filly has more experience and more foundation than the top pick. If all the starters simply duplicated their last start, 'KIDS would win. REGGAE QUEEN exits an ugly race, but this marks the first try on grass for the daughter of top turf sire Dynaformer. She switches to Corey Nakatani and could move up on the new surface. This race was split in two, and this is the weaker half. Race 2 is a lot tougher on paper. ST. GALLEN goes long on grass, with a pedigree and running style that suggest she is a candidate to outrun her odds.

Fifth Race

1. FRANTIC FRANCES 2. TRAPPER'SHABIT 3. DRESSING GOWN

This race is a scramble. FRANTIC FRANCES, an eight-time winner from a sharp barn and a winner on this track last year (going a mile for a $12,500 claiming price) is the one to beat. She drops out of a highly-rated affair that was dominated by the pacesetter, and now meets much weaker. With a versatile running style, 'FRANCES may be able to tuck in right behind the leaders and wear them down in the lane. TRAPPER'SHABIT regressed in two starts at Hollywood Park, and therefore earned a two-month freshening. She returns at an appropriate class level, she proved in March she runs well fresh, and her style suggests one mile may be her best distance. DRESSING GOWN dives off the class ladder. Her only dirt start was not half-bad, and she will be setting or pressing the pace all the way. NOVETO smoked conditioned claimers with a huge figure. She may be the one to catch.

Del Mar ANALYSIS

Sixth Race

1. EL CHOLO 2. KINETIC BEND 3. SOCIAL TRENDS

EL CHOLO blitzed maidens with an outstanding pace figure, and subsequent workouts on this track indicate he will continue to improve. The speedster is one of the quickest in this field, and may be able to run his rivals straight into the ground. KINETIC BEND drops out of a fast $50,000 claiming race for 3-year-olds. He will be pressing the top pick, and would be one of the first to inherit the lead if the top choice tires. SOCIAL TRENDS won his comeback in game style over Gaelic Hope (a contender in the first race on this card). 'TRENDS fits if able to reproduce that effort, but that was his first start in neary a year, and he is a candidate to bounce in his first against winners. REAL SPECIAL adds heat to the lineup, while HOLY JO bids to become the first two-time winner this meet. He may have been lucky to win his last, however. Runner-up Comstock King (the morning line favorite in race 4 Thursday) had plenty of trouble and might have been best.

Seventh Race

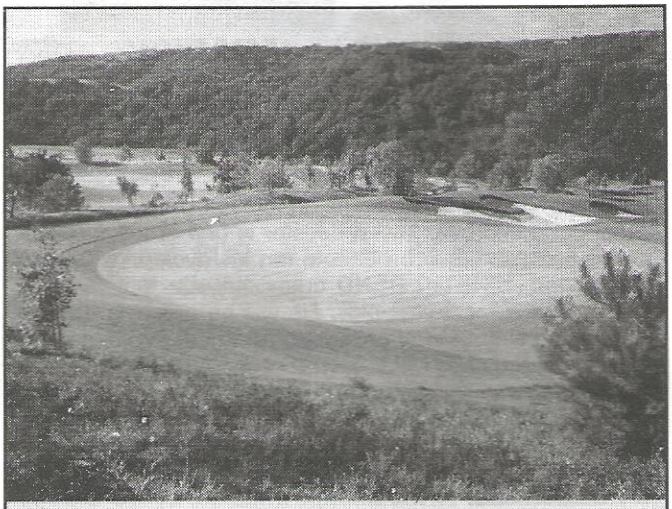
1. CALI 2. GLEEFULLY 3. CAMARGO

All three wins by CALI came following layoffs, and the pattern can be repeated here. She has won on this turf course, she handles three turns, and she has been freshened since late April. First time back, she is ready to fire. GLEEFULLY is the deserving highweight off her Grade 3 marathon win two starts back. Predicatably noncompetitive on dirt against Riboletta, she now returns to grass and will be in the mix all the way around. CAMARGO disappointed on soft going at Arlington, but fits off her Hollywood Park form. CAMARGO ran better than the line shows in two starts on this course last summer. The knock is she is coming back in just 12 days, and following a ship from Chicago. SPICY GIRL won her comeback in impressive style and will motor late. This 11-furlong race is a long trip for her.

Eighth Race

1. WHAT A LITTLE STAR 2.BIEN DANCING 3. L'NATURAL HIGH

WHAT A LITTLE STAR faded after pressing a quick pace. He shortens up a half-furlong, and may get brave. If he does not get in, BIEN DANCING is the right horse. He exits a fast-pace race, he might have needed the start, and should improve. L'NATURAL HIGH raced evenly in his debut. Trainer John Sadler does very well with second-time starters. BAHA'S DANCER debuts in a soft spot. She has good works, and a good barn.



SIMPLY THE BEST.

In grand Fazio tradition, this world-class course rewards you with an unforgettable golf experience.
